FOOLING THE PUBLIC.

TONOPAH Democrats must be running a publicity department if readers are to judge the stories wired from Tonopah after the recent industrial outbreak. From these accounts it would appear as though the Democratic district attorney of Nye county was pawing the ground with the well simulated ferocity of an old warhorse fretting for the fray and tearing out his hair in handfuls over the prospect of paralleling the achievement of the New York district attorney in discovering a substantial ground on which he might hold the I. W. Ws. for their violation of a very plain statute. He has unearthed the crime of "criminal anarchy," which he declares can be made to stick if the county commissioners come to his assistance with an appropriation of sufficient magnitude to annex the services of a detective bureau. The district attorney confided this information to the Bonanza recently with a solemn injunction that nothing should be said about it until he was prepared to fire the bombshell. Not seeing the story in the Bonanza next day in all the luridness of red ink, the attorney must have been peeved over the lack of publicity and taken steps to see that his Quixotic intentions were not forgotten or overlooked in the prevailing excitement. He was Johnny on the Spot with his brass band and, without waiting for the county commissioners to act upon an application which has not yet been made, the district attorney or some of his too ardent friends fired the gun that was expected to bring the legal fledgling of Nye county into national prominence as a rival of the prosecuting attorney of the Borough of Manhattan. The facts of the matter are that the Nye county attorney is after a little cheap advertising. He has hatched an idea and now does not know what to do with it. He has no information that would serve in the prosecution of the Gargantuan project he has launched and as a matter of fact quietly passes the buck up to the county commissioners who are not likely to treat the suggestion with any seriousness. As President Taft justly remarked at the meeting of the American Bar association, there are laws enough on the statute books of every state in the country if the proper officers would only enforce them without trying to make new ones. There is no use playing to the galleries, especially in view of the fact that the I. W. Ws. have refused to nominate a candidate for the office of district attorney for which the incumbent is a candidate for re-election.

Another instance of peanut politics and cheap clap trap bidding for notoriety is an ex-officio utterance from the courthouse reading: "Sheriff Malley has returned from the northern part of the county and has taken charge of the situation, which he has well in hand." The sheriff has constantly iterated and reiterated that he has no responsibility in the town of Tonopah so long as there is a chief of police elected to look after this district of the county. The foregoing statement going the rounds of Democratic press has an inspired ring. If the sheriff can assume responsibility at this late day he might explain to the voters why he did not do something before the collision that everybody expected came and at least one man's life placed in jeopardy. Mr. Malley might also explain why he permitted and still permits lawless characters to go around with guns bulging from their hip pockets without any pretense of concealment. Before claiming too much the sheriff should hold a quiet confidential heart to heart talk with the district attorney and ascertain from him what he means when he says he needs the services of imported officers to make a case against ordinary lawbreakers on the stilted ground of "criminal anarchy," because he cannot get any assistance from the regularly elected peace officers. These are a few things that might be explained.

GET BUSY AND REGISTER.

THIS is the time for every citizen with the good of the camp at heart to make a good resolution to register at once and not leave that duty to the last minute or until after the primaries. It is as important as voting to take part in the primary election with the object of seeing that the right candidates are nominated and that none but good men be placed on the respective tickets. Every practical politician knows that where citizens manifest a personal interest in the nomination of candidates that none but the best timber will be selected. There is no time for hairsplitting or procrastination. By waiting until the last minute the voters subject themselves to the penalty of delays at the registration office whereas, if they enroll now they can do so in very few minutes. Registration for the primary election closes August 20th and the right of any elector to vote at the primaries may be challenged by any other elector upon the ground that he does not belong to the political party designated upon the register. It is rumored that an attempt will be made to pad the list and it is the duty of every good citizen to familiarize himself with the list of registered voters so that none but actual citizens qualified by residence shall be allowed to assist in the nomination of candidates or later, to thwart the will of the people by electing a minority ticket.

Registration up to date shows an apathy on the part of taxpayers.

ers who will have to abide by the result of the elections for the ensuing two years. If any reforms are to be instituted these reforms should be initiated by the people and the people can only have a say as to the manner of conducting the affairs of the county and town by taking an active part in the administration. The last day for registering in order to be eligible to vote at the fall election will be October 20. Registration for the primaries closes August 20th.

The Elko Independent tells of the robbery of a woman dancer in a tent show that visited that town and adds the suggestive remark: "She was left without anything to wear." Must have been posing in the altogether or doing a Little Egypt stunt.

Psychology is responsible for a Denver iceman having a brain-storm during which he gave away property worth $85,000. That must have been some state of mind as borne out by the cold facts.

A Tonopah observer sends the following information which he describes as "The Woodrow Wilson Waltz." One step forward. Five steps back. Hesitation. Meditation. Sidestep.

Reno Elks celebrated the return of the goat to the ritual. The announcement fails to state whether this is the Newlands or the Dickerson nanny.

Socialists show a preference for Tonopah, since five out of fifteen candidates on the state ticket are from this town.

LOOKING FOR NICE PARLIAMENTARY JOB FOR KIPLING

UNIONIST WANTS A PLACE THAT CAN BE HELD WITHOUT NURSING.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 20.—While it seems fairly settled that Rudyard Kipling will be a candidate for member of parliament at the next general election, the Unionist party has not yet found a seat for him. After his recent attack on the Liberal government's policy, a speech which caused no end of comment in England, the Bordesley division of Birmingham, from which the Right Honorable Jesse Collings is retiring, offered him the Liberal-Unionist candidacy, but he declined on the ground that he was being put forward by one section of the party which desired to force its candidacy on the other section. For in Birmingham, the Unionists and Conservatives, who worked together under the leadership of the late Joseph Chamberlain, have now renewed their jealousies. Each section is trying to get a candidate in full sympathy with its views to succeed Mr. Collings. A similar situation was avoided in the west division of Birmingham, which Mr. Chamberlain represented for so many years, only by the fact that his son, Austen Chamberlain, recently came forward as a candidate.

For Mr. Kipling a constituency is being sought which will not be too exacting, and which will not require what the English call "nursing."

DEMOCRATS, ATTENTION.
